

GROWTH

In Year 4, we have been experimenting with tooth decay and how to identify plaque build-up on our teeth. Using a special toothpaste tablet, we were able to identify how well our teeth have been brushed.

Using this we were able to identify places that we were not brushing properly and discussed proper dental hygiene.

