Our school serves a diverse community in the heart of Harrow and we are proud of our vibrant atmosphere where all children and adults are valued. The school is known for our inclusive approach where the abilities and gifts of all children are celebrated.

We have strong links with universities; local colleges, local high schools and with our partner primary schools.

There is an active, supportive Parent Staff Association which organises community social activities. In addition we have a Staff Well-Being group that arranges social activities for staff.
